my wife mary came home one day last year and told me that she had learned the secret to good health if a person does develop liver disease, and it is discovered that he is a carrier, then this should not be assumed to be the final explanation for the disease these numbers tell us that about 40-50 children in the cincinnati area will be diagnosed with jia each year.