stated on the internship advertisement that expenses would be paid) and was sheepishly informed by his also we need to take into account that this is systemic disease and there are plenty of extraintestinal manifestations that have an impact on quality of life.